

everyday celebrations

LIFESTYLE This month marks Stampin' Up!'s 20th anniversary. As they celebrate this momentous occasion, it seems fitting to think about ways we can celebrate the people and events in our everyday lives. Here are five small ways you can make every day a celebration:

1. Create a collage of pictures of your loved ones, then hang it somewhere you can easily see it.
2. Arrange some fresh flowers in a vase.

3. Call or e-mail someone you haven't talked to in a while.
4. Watch the sunrise, sunset, or both!
5. Give someone you love a "just because" gift.

There are so many ways we can make every day a celebration. Think about your favorite ways, then pick one to do tomorrow—or even today!
