Some final thoughts

I just returned from Stampin' Up!'s 20th Anniversary Convention last weekend. Let me tell you, thousands of people converging in one location to learn about new and exciting upcoming features and product lines opening up for Stampin' Up! was truly an experience I will not soon forget! I learned so many new techniques and took over 800 photographs (yes, that's right! - thank goodness for the invention of digital cameras!). I can't wait to share with you all that I learned at Convention!

Stampingly Yours,

June Annand
